RENSSELAER BLANKED.

Trinity Bats Out a Clean Victory, 3-0.

Trinity defeated Rensselaer, on Saturday afternoon at Trinity Field, by the score of 3 to 0. Warner pitched superb ball throughout the game, only one hit being marked against him until the ninth inning, when two bingles over third base started a short but ineffective rally. Ten of the Troy athletes were retired on strikes. Smith of Rensselaer was hit freely at opportune times, and was given poor support by the infield, Huyck at first base making three errors. Trinity scored her runs in the fourth and eighth. In the fourth Turner and Horan singled, and the next two men up, Carroll and Brainerd, were easy outs. Turner and Horan scored, however, when Ahern reached first on an error. In the eighth, with two out and Turner on first, Carroll's doubled to left, scoring Turner.

The game was scheduled to commence at three, but the visitors were late in arriving and it was nearly 4 o'clock before Umpire Rorty started the contest.

Both sides went out in one-two-three order in the first inning. In the first of the second, after two were out, H. Turner was safe on first through an error by Brainerd. Turner stole second, but died there as Tyler was an easy out. In the last half of the second, Carroll started off with a clean single over third. Brainerd flied out. Ahern sacrificed to Smith, leaving Carroll on second. The best Blecker could do was to drive a long fly to left, which Schiller gobbled up and thereby retired the side.

In the first of the third, Shankey began well by hitting a grounder to second which Carroll could not get in time and which went for a hit. Smith was out on a fly to Warner. Conklin and Huyck struck out, retiring the side. In Trinity's half, Lister was safe on first through an error. Warner knocked up a fly to center, which looked good for a hit, and Lister hastened to second. H. Turner made a good catch and returned the ball to first in time to get Lister, L'Heureux was out, Smith to Huyck.

Rensselaer went out in order in the first of the fourth, but Trinity scored two runs. Turner started things going with a single to left-center. Horan tried to sacrifice, but after two strikes were called on him, thought better of it, and singled over third. Carroll flied out to Spear, and Brainerd was out on a grounder, Southard to Huyck. Ahern hit to Southard, who fielded the ball and threw to first, but Huyck dropped the ball, leaving Ahern safe. In the meantime, "Dad" Turner had crossed the plate and Horan was digging for third. Huyck recovered the ball and threw wild to third, allowing Horan to bring in the second run and Ahern to reach second, while Conklin was chasing the ball to the fence. Blecker ended the period by grounding out, Southard to Huyck.

In the first of the fifth, the visitors again went out in order on two strikeouts and a fly to Blecker. Lister started things for Trinity, being safe on first through an error by Tyler. Warner went out, Conklin to Huyck, and L'Heureux followed suit. Smith to Huyck. Turner struck out.

In the first of the sixth, Smith was out on a foul fly to L'Heureux. Conklin walked. Huyck was out, Carroll to Brainerd. Spear drew a pass, but Southard retired the side when he hit to Warner. In Trinity's half, Horan got his second hit of the game, placing one in center. Carroll tried to imitate him, but H. Turner was ready and caught his fly. Brainerd was out, Southard to Huyck. Shankey caught a foul fly from Ahern's bat and retired the side.

Both sides retired in order in the seventh, and Rensselaer did the same in the eighth, but Trinity got the third run in this inning. Lister hit safely to center, but was caught at second when Turner tried to sacrifice him, Turner being safe on first. Horan went out, Southard to Huyck, leaving Turner on third. Carroll distinguished himself by hitting for two bags, Turner scoring. Ahern went out on a foul fly to Conklin.

In the ninth, Rensselaer threw a spare into the Trinity camp. Huyck and Spear went out, Carroll to Brainerd. Southard hit safely over second, Schiller hit safely over third leaving Southard on second. Both men advanced a station, when L'Heureux allowed a ball to pass him. Warner recovered, and struck out H. Turner, thereby getting out of a big hole.

The practice put in the last week told for the gold-and-blue boys, and helped to keep the visitors safe all the time. The game did not commence until nearly 4 o'clock, although scheduled for 3, owing to the lateness of the stands confined themselves to organized cheering, and the improvement was easily seen. Short and Collett.

The Athletic Association held its annual meeting for the election of officers on Friday evening, in the History Room. William Short, '12, of St. Louis, Mo., was elected president of the body, and C. H. Collett, '13, of Dover, N. H., secretary. Short was recently accorded the high honor of being elected the college marshal for commencement week. Collett has won his T in track and football.

R. L. Deppen, '13, of Shamokin, Pa., was elevated from assistant manager to manager of the baseball team. W. S. Marsden, '13, of Lenox, Mass., who has been acting manager of the track team during the past season owing to Manager Pettigrew's illness, was elected manager.

There were four candidates for assistant baseball manager, Fort, Lazarus, Ramsay and Walker. Fort, '14, was elected on the second ballot, running against Walker. For assistant track manager Page, Fitzpatrick, Moses, and Woodward, were the candidates. Moses was elected on the second ballot, running against Fitzpatrick.

Two amendments concerning regulation track suits and letters were added to the constitution.

Senior Assembly.

The senior class held its spring assembly last Thursday evening at Alumni hall. It was a strictly informal affair, and was greatly enjoyed by over sixty couples. The evening was so warm as to be unpleasant for dancing under ordinary "full dress" conditions, but through the foresight of the men in charge, the participants were allowed to "trip the light fantastic" in perfect comfort. A program of sixteen numbers was in order at 8 o'clock, and, with a short intermission, was completed shortly before midnight.

The details and arrangements for the assembly were in charge of the senior ball committee, composed of Paul Maxon, chairman; J. W. Harrison, B. F. Yates, J. O. Carroll, Eugene Doorman, and A. E. Rankin. The patronesses were Mrs. F. S. Luther, Mrs. Cranston Brenton, Mrs. R. G. Gettell, and Miss MacAlpine.

Bishop Brewster Here.

At Sunday chapel the rite of confirmation was administered by the Bishop of the diocese to Chambers Chow, of Hankow, China. A most absorbing and impressive sermon was preached by Bishop Brewster upon the descent of the Holy Ghost. He showed the importance of the coming of the Holy Spirit, and how Christianity, wherever it has gone, has been followed by civilization, scientific enlightenment and reason, where ignorance and superstition had been before.

S. S. S. SMOKER.

Enjoyable Affair Held Thursday Evening.

The newly launched society for the Study of Socialism held an informal smoker Thursday evening in President Tractenburg's home. The arrangements were made by Short, '12, and there were plenty of refreshments, smokes, etc. Members of the Glee Club present contributed songs, and there was a general discussion by all the members. The society will suspend active study until the fall term of college, when the work so auspiciously begun will be continued.

MINOR SPORTS ASSOCIATION.

Proposed Constitution to Be Adopted by Senate.

The report of the Senate Committee (Paul Maxon, '11, chairman) on the organization of a Minor Sports Association, is presented herewith in full. The Senate voted that it be presented to the college body through The Tripod before it came up for adoption. The Senate will meet this week, and any suggestions for amendments should be made at once.

Constitution.

Name.

Article 1. The name of this organization shall be the Minor Sports Athletic Council of Trinity College.

Object.

Article 2. The object of this organization shall be to supervise the management of all sports not under the athletic association; to see that the management of these teams is conducted in a way satisfactory to the college, the faculty, the teams concerned and to other colleges involved.

Members.

Article 3. This council shall consist of the managers of the sports involved, a member of the faculty, and a representation elected from and by the Trinity College Senate—which shall exceed the remainder of the council by one man. The faculty member shall be elected by the undergraduate members of the council.

Officers.

Article 4. The officers shall be a chairman and a secretary, both to be elected by members of the council.

Duties of Officers.

Article 5. The chairman shall preside at council meetings and shall vote therein. The secretary shall keep an accurate account of all the proceedings of the council.

Quorum.

Article 6. A quorum of the council shall consist of one more than half the members.

Amendments.

Article 7. To amend the Constitution and By-laws of the council it shall require a two-thirds vote of the members present at the meeting.

By-Laws.

Meetings.

Article 1. There shall be three regular meetings in the college year, to be called during the first week of November, the last week in March of the week preceding the Easter recess, and the week preceding the final examinations in June. Meetings shall be called at the discretion of the chairman or at the request of any one member.

Duties.

Article 2. The duties of the council shall be to approve the schedules of the teams under the control of the council, to award letters according to the rules herein stated and to direct the general policies of the teams.

Basketball.

Article 3. Section I.—Finances. The basketball team shall be self-sup-

EDITORIAL.

The attention of every undergraduate who professes any interest whatever in the athletic policy of the college is directed to the proposed constitution for a Minor Sports Association, published elsewhere in this issue. Up to the present the three minor sports—basketball, hockey and tennis—have been free-lance associations, subject only to nominal control by the Senate, and to such restrictions as absence-limitations imposed. The result has not been altogether satisfactory from any point of view, and the proposed combination should prove a benefit to the interests of the affected teams as well as to the athletic standing of the college.

The next issue—June 9—will be the last for the current year, with the possible exception of a commencement extra.

Track Captain Elected.

Thursday afternoon the track team, after sitting for their picture at Randall's studio, elected Harry Wessels, '12, to lead the team next year.

Wessels has been one of the best pole vaulters in college for the past three years, and is well qualified to fill the position of captain. He is both an experienced athlete and a good leader. Until recently he held the college record in the pole vault.

The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company,

Hartford, Conn.

Why should I insure my life?

Because it is a debt you owe to those who are dependent upon your earnings for their support.

You admit that it is your duty to supply their needs from day to day, but forget that it is equally your duty to provide an ever ready and sufficient equivalent for your earning power, which your family stands in constant jeopardy to lose by your premature death.

Guard your family against disaster and yourself against dependency in old age.

When should I insure my life?

Now! The cost will never be less, and to-morrow you may not be able to obtain insurance at any price.

Even if others are not now dependent upon you, take time by the forelock and you will be the better able to meet future responsibilities,
and at a smaller premium.

Where shall I insure my life?

In a purely Mutual Company.

In a company that earns, declares,
and pays annual dividends.

In a company that is doing a conservative business.

Such a Company is The Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. It furnishes perfect protection at lowest cost.

For further information, address
the Company, or any of its agents.

Communication.

To the Editor of The Tripod:

I am glad to hear that the Senate is to make it possible to get "off probation" during the summer. It may not do any good, for the high powers, while very likely to commend a petition from the Senate which is in the direction of greater rigidity, are apt to reply to such an appeal as this,
"I am very much disappointed that the Senate should take such action."
The august representative body is then due to hang its head in shame, and slink away and repent its hasty deed.

Yes, and so long as the Senate will allow itself to be "squelched" by such words as these, so long shall we stand still and watch the crowds go by us.
There is no ground in common sense for the present probation rule, and the high powers know it as well as "the toad beneath the harrow." I believe its true object is not punitive, but practical—the probationer is restrained from outside diversions so that he may have time to make up his work. But if he has already made it up by going to summer school? "Oh, put him on probation anyway—it won't do him any harm!"
Yours truly, "THE TOAD."

COMMENCEMENT GAME.

Waseda University of Japan to Play Trinity June 24.

Alumni and students alike will be glad to know that arrangements were completed yesterday to bring the baseball team of the Waseda University of Japan to this city on June 24, to play the Trinity nine. The Waseda nine are now in Iowa, and through the efforts of Professor Honda, who has lectured at Trinity College, the game at Hartford has been made possible.

The game will take place on the Saturday before commencement, and as a good many alumni will be here, and it is the first time in the history of the college that the Waseda team has played Trinity, a large crowd is predicted.
Commencement games are always filled with excitement and enthusiasm, and the management and Athletic Committee are to be congratulated on bringing such a good team to Hartford for that date.

Dear Sir: What has become of the

For heaven's sake, let's wake up and Trusting you give this publication

so it may reach the desired persons and thanking you for same, I am,
